

Young Footballers Set to Lock Horns at McMaster Park

Torrance Recreation will play the first official contest. The leagues listed will be played at McMaster Park. Saturday 10 a.m. the Ivy League, ages 10-11, will engage in a touch-football game.

Also on Saturday, Oct. 8, the three leagues will have a "dime a dip" dinner from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., to raise money for trophies.

All 18 teams will participate in exhibition games for the fans who attend the dinner. More than 250 footballers will be tossing the pigskin around.

Foreign Countries Studied by Sorority

Hungary and Sweden were subjects of discussion at the September educational meeting of Gamma Psi chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

At the meeting held in the home of Mrs. Philip Rodwell, 2413 Pine Ave., Manhattan Beach, Mrs. John Riley gave the lecture on Hungary which she demonstrated with dolls dressed in native costumes.

Mrs. Philip Rodwell discussed Sweden.

The refreshments featured foods of both countries.

General Medical Center Opened

Announcement of the opening of Torrance's newest general medical center, located at 542 E. Carson St., was made today by the two-man team in charge.

Drs. Glenn Moss and Gary Hathaway, both UCLA and College of Osteopathic Surgeons' graduates, are heading the organization, with "24 hour service," according to the men.

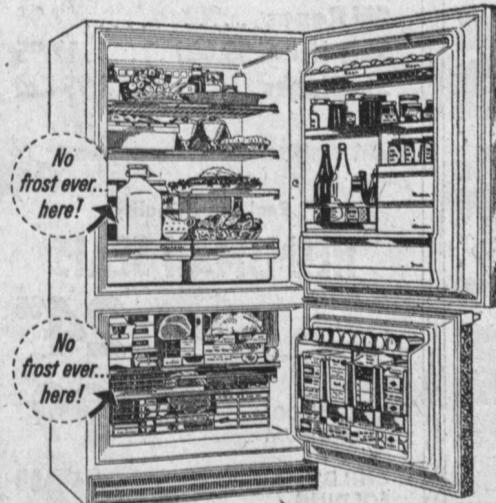

Complete facilities for general practice and industrial medicine are available, and a licensed physician will be on the premises at all times. Drs. Moss and Hathaway declared.
